

The Bachelor of Science in Computational Finance (BSCF) programme is an applied mathematics programme with a focus on finance being a developed application area. BSCF programme consists of courses in mathematics, finance, probability/statistics, and computer applications.